1448 - Sunshine from San Diego . . . we anticipate the upcoming 100th birthday of America's most popular outdoor pipe organ at the Spreckels Pavillion in Balboa Park.

1449 - Approaching Christmas . . . in anticipation of the holiday season, a collection of music on Advent themes.

1450 - From Heaven Above . . . we borrow from an international collective of music old and new in celebration of the Christmas holiday.

1451 - Holiday Highlights . . . some engaging confections, some of them 'invented in the moment', add to our enjoyment of this special time of year.

1452 - The Organist's Yearbook . . . the traditional summing-up of some of the year's activity in the world of the King of Instruments

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
