1536 - Prom-inent Pipes . . . classic repertoire, improvisations, and an unusual concerto provide opportunities for soloists on the mighty Royal Albert Hall organ at the BBC Proms in London.

1537 - Our Father . . . one of the world's best known texts provides us with glimpses into the composer's craft and the organ builder's art.

1538 - In Every Corner Sing! . . . raising the roof with soulful and sonorous scores for choirs, congregations, solo singers and organs.

1539 - More Organ Plus . . . intriguing combinations of other musical friends add importantly to the organ's 'public' repertoire.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
