1727 - American Tapestry . . . whether picturesque or provocative, these composers weave an intriguing spell.

1728 - An Australian Adventure . . . a sampler of some of the sounds you'll enjoy when participating in the upcoming PIPE DREAMS Group Tour 'down under'.

1729 - The Minnesota Muse . . . a sampler of some instruments heard next month during the Organ Historical Society's national convention.

1730 - Back with Bach . . . a summertime respite with performances new and old of music which, though chronologically old, is always fresh and new.

1731 - Partita Time! . . . with varied textures and tone colors, these multi-movement scores showcase instruments and players equally.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
