1948 – Resourceful Resonances . . . a selection of recent, varied, and colorful pipe organs from around the United States.

1949 - For the Christmas Festival . . . a multi-generational sampler of festival holiday music from many lands.

1950 - Holiday Surprises . . . a diverting collection of rare and unusual music for the Christmas festival.

1951 - An American Organist's Christmas. . . music for the season with a distinctly home-grown flavor.

1952 - The Organist's Yearbook . . . our traditional summing-up of some of the previous year's happenings in the world of the King of Instruments.

Pipedreams is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
